DISCOVER THE GLENROWAN HERITAGE SIEGE PRECINCT
Glenrowan is a tangible link with one of Australia’s most infamous historical figures, Ned Kelly. Dressed in a helmet and suit of armour made of ploughs, Kelly made his famous last stand on 28 June 1880 at Glenrowan following a siege between his gang and Melbourne troopers. See the key sites of the final siege. Glenrowan Heritage Precinct was included in the National Heritage List on 5 July 2005.

The vibrant CBD offers diverse shopping and laneways, a revitalised arts precinct, parks and gardens and is compact and easy to navigate on foot. Regional delights and fresh seasonal produce are featured at the many cafés and restaurants.

Whether it’s a gentle pedal along one of the many shared paths throughout the CBD, mountain biking in the Warby Ovens National Park or the thrill of downhill through the Taminick Gap - the options are endless for the avid cyclist. The star of the show really is the Murray to Mountains Rail Trail though - it’s not everyday you have what’s been recognised as Australia’s Premier Rail Trail actually beginning in your town!

Regional delights and fresh seasonal produce are featured at the many cafés and restaurants.

Heading out for a drink? The perfect blend of regional charm and city sophistication means there are several pubs, bars and riverside cafés to choose from, depending on your preferred tipple.

With over 40 cafés and restaurants located in the CBD, the thriving café scene offers something for all tastes, budgets and cravings.
Just north of Wangaratta, check out the Boorhaman Hotel and Buffalo Brewery – the oldest brewery still operating in Victoria. Their traditional ginger ale is legendary in local circles.

For an old-fashioned pub experience, the Vine Hotel on the city's edge serves all of your counter meal classics and offers regular live music and an underground museum.

With over six hotels within the CBD; live entertainment, beer gardens, a frothy beer or crisp cider are easy to enjoy.

shop Be sure to visit The Factory Outlet for brand names such as Dickies, Dri Glo, Esprit and Country Road. Alternatively, stop by the Ringer Socks outlet for locally made socks, moccasins & garden ornaments.

The Woollen Mill at Australian Country Spinners is a favourite for craft lovers, with mountains of mill ends at bargain prices. It may be a touch of pot luck as to what you get, but it's very much like a kid in a lolly shop scenario for those in love with fibres. You'll be surprised as to how much you take home!

A personalised experience awaits the avid shopper, whether it's a little indulgence, a gift for someone special or a memento of your stay that you seek.

The main shopping streets are Murphy, Reid, Ovens and Ford Streets, all of which are filled with a mix of specialty shops offering everything from high fashion and homewares to gifts and electrical goods.

Wander the streets and immerse yourself in the many retail shops offering individual character, charm and country hospitality.

family Some of the best holidays are those taken with family. Memories are created and stories to tell for years to come - however, the fear of most parents is not having enough to do. Being a regional centre, there is loads to do for the family. From indoor putt & glow mini golf, 10 pin bowling, skatepark, a movie at the cinema centre to a state of the art aquatic centre.

Popular activities include discovering our walking tracks, cycling, swimming and fishing in the Ovens River, gold panning, parks and gardens, golf, horse riding and discovering our nearby wineries.

Cool off in Summer at Wangaratta's brand new mountains and valleys themed splash park.

EL DORADO &
the Woolshed Valley

a region of untouched natural beauty...

SCATTERED WITH REMNANTS OF A BYGONE ERA AND NESTLED ON THE BANKS OF REEDY CREEK, AT THE FOOT OF THE WOOLSHED VALLEY, EL DORADO IS ONE OF THE LAST REMAINING AUTHENTIC COUNTRY TOWNS IN AUSTRALIA.

At El Dorado, the discovery of gold played a monumental part in securing the region’s historical significance, whilst the adjoining Woolshed Valley was pivotal in the legend of the Ned Kelly Gang.

While the miners’ dwellings are long gone, the school museum, cemetery and several churches still stand and provide an insight into life as it was in a bygone era.

The General Store has amenities such as petrol, a post office and bank. Discover the regions’ emerging food and wine offerings on the Woolshed Valley Touring Route. The McEvoy Tavern, the smallest pub in Victoria, provides meals and refreshments and stocks many local wines and ciders.

El Dorado is popular with day-trippers, horseriding and mountain biking groups as well as many cyclists who detour from the world famous Murray to Mountains Rail Trail. Artists and gemstone fossickers have known and visited the area for many years.

You can pick up an El Dorado Historic Walk map at the El Dorado General Store and a Miners Right at the Wangaratta Visitor Information Centre to try your gold mining skills.
explore  Reids Walk takes you through a former alluvial gold mining area leading down towards Reedy Creek, it then follows the water up stream to a suspension bridge over the creek.

The short Monument Hill walk takes you high above the town featuring a magnificent view of the town and valley. El Dorado’s shared path is perfect for walking and cycling, traversing the entire length of the town from the El Dorado Museum to the historic gold and tin mining dredge. At the dredge take advantage of the dredge walk that gives you a 360 degree view of the floating monster.

Pick up an El Dorado town map brochure to discover how all the walks link together.

Visit El Dorado Pottery, The Museum, Art Studio/Galleries, farm gate outlets when in season and El Dorado’s three historic churches.

There is a variety of accommodation styles ranging from camping, caravan sites, cabins and B&B’s.

WOOLSHED VALLEY GUIDED DRIVE
Your tour begins at the interpretive signs near the general store at the centre of town and follows a dirt road (it is suitable for 2 wheel drive as well as 4 wheel drive cars) through the Woolshed Valley to Beechworth. Along the way stop and view the 10 interpretive signs that point out significant sites like the Kelly Caves and Aaron Sherrit’s house site. Experience the natural beauty of the creek and Chiltern Mt Pilot National park.

COCK’S DREDGE
In 1936 production of Cock’s large bucket dredge began, mining alluvial gold and tin until 1954. It was one of the largest dredges in the Southern Hemisphere – a floating monster weighing 2,142 tons and pulling the third most power from the State Electricity Grid after Melbourne and Geelong. In its 18 years of operation the dredge produced 70,664 ounces of gold and 1,383 tons of tin concentrate.

Folklore has it that Ned Kelly helped the Bailey family plant their first vines, and since then the ensuing 130 years of winemaking has established the region’s reputation for full-bodied reds, fragrant whites and fortifieds.

The township of Glenrowan is the site of the final siege and capture of Ned Kelly and his gang in 1880. Their story is preserved in its attractions, museums and historic walks. On the outskirts of the township, sweeping views from the Warby Ovens National Park over the Winton Wetlands and Mt Buffalo offer many options for a picturesque picnic spot, bird watching and bushwalking. Explore the many vantage points and lookouts including Ryan’s Lookout, Mount Glenrowan and Salisbury Falls (during the cooler months).

/explore/ Take a drive to nearby Greta Cemetery where Ned Kelly lays at rest alongside his family. With the Warby Ovens National Park and Winton Wetlands surrounding Glenrowan - spend time exploring the many walking and cycling tracks or bird watching. www.parkweb.vic.gov.au /ride/ Hop on a bike and go back in history to a time of bushrangers & folklore. Visit the museums, galleries and animated theatre. Have your photo taken at the ‘Big Ned’, take the self guided walking tour, or visit the Kelly Siege Site.

taste  You can't go past the Billy Tea Rooms for their fresh scones and tea, the bakehouse for a scrumptious treat or pie, the Glenrowan Hotel serves traditional pub meals and BLT is renowned for their hearty homemade meals. Neds Burger House does an amazing burger & Souvlaki!

The region's cellar doors are intimate and welcoming, many offering casual fare on weekends featuring local produce and delicacies.

Our wineries include Morrisons of Glenrowan, Booths Taminick Cellars, Baileys of Glenrowan & Auldstone Cellars.

A new addition to the scene is Black Dog Brewery, hand crafted with premium malted barley, hops and pure Warby Range water.

You’ll find more than just grapes and refreshing beer - there are also several fruit orchards and growers producing nectarines, cherries, peaches, limes and free range pork. Discover local orchards and farmgates such as Smiths Glenrowan Stonefruits, Cherrytime in Wangadary or Taminick Free Range Pork to name just a few.

LOCAL CHARACTER

Auldstone historic cellars, nestled in the foothills of the Warby Ranges, boasts a range of award winning wines made by Michael and Nancy Reid. But this is just the start of the story! Every weekend Nancy's culinary skills come to life as she prepares scrumptious seasonal lunches and platters featuring her signature homemade pate served with aromatic homemade bread. Home grown, ‘paddock to plate’ grilled dorper lamb salads are another specialty. The wonderful coffee and cakes (which are Michael's creations), are all enjoyed with a perfectly matched glass of wine.
